This Privacy Policy applies to all visitors, users, patients, and other participants of Three Girl Scientists website accessible at threegirlscientists.com, unless contrary or additional policies or provisions are expressly stated to apply at such other websites or with respect to a given web page or feature.

If you have questions or complaints regarding our privacy policy or practices, please contact us at contact@threegirlscientists.com.

You agree to this Policy by displaying, using, or accessing the Three Girl Scientists website or any service or feature provided by Three Girl Scientists, by providing personal or user information to the Three Girl Scientists website, by submitting or posting any information or other material to the Three Girl Scientists website, or by allowing or authorizing any person to do any of the same on your behalf or for your benefit. If you do not agree with this Policy, please do not use, or authorize another on your behalf to use, the Three Girl Scientists website or any such services or features. Questions and concerns regarding this Policy should be directed by e-mail to contact@threegirlscientists.com.

Three Girl Scientists respects your privacy. Any information you give us is held with care and security and will only be used as described in this Policy or otherwise with your consent. Furthermore, any information you provide us through the Three Girl Scientists website, virtual meeting platforms, or encrypted emails which constitutes “Protected Health Information” under and as described in the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104–191, together with the regulations promulgated thereunder by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (collectively, “HIPAA”) shall be stored and treated in accordance with HIPAA requirements, subject to and as further described in this Policy.

To give your name, a contact telephone number, a PIN or password, your date of birth, your postal address, e-mail address, and other contact or pertinent information. Three Girl Scientists may also ask for other information required to provide particular services, such as information pertaining to your medical condition(s) and other relevant information. Information may also be collected by your presence on the Three Girl Scientists website, even if you have not registered or subscribed.

Generally, this information falls into one of five categories:

- (1) Personal Identifying Information, such as your name and e-mail address, which can be used to personally identify or contact you (or to confirm your identity in the case of user IDs and passwords),
- (2) Protected Health Information (PHI), such as any medical conditions you may have, your medical history, your treatment history, and like information,
- (3) Billing Information such as your credit card information and billing address, which is a subset of Personal Identifying Information and which we may use to bill you for a service or feature which you have knowingly purchased,
- (4) Usage Information such as your IP address, public postings, opinions or other matter you have either posted or reviewed, your click patterns on the Three Girl Scientists website, and other information indicative of your use of the service or features on the Three Girl Scientists website, and
- (5) Anonymous Information which is an aggregate of the other information categories decoupled from any method of identifying the source of that information, which we use to determine the demographics, habits, preferences, or statistical characteristics of the Three Girl Scientists website users or subgroups thereof, but which cannot be used to identify you or your specific usage history. Anonymous Information may include portions of Personal Identifying Information, PHI, and Usage Information which have been decoupled from any identifying information and aggregated with that of other Three Girl Scientists website users.

How Each Type of Information Is Used

Three Girl Scientists will use your Personal Identifying Information as follows:

- (1) to regulate access to the Three Girl Scientists website and its features and services, as well as to your account (such as requiring passwords to access certain services or post content);
- (2) to personalize and enhance your experience when visiting the Three Girl Scientists website;
- (3) to promote to you (including contacting you by e-mail) Three Girl Scientists endorsed products or services, or other products or services in which we believe you may be interested, but only when you opt-in to receive our promotions and newsletters, and you may later opt-out from promotional emails through various mechanisms we provide (your PHI may also be used in a similar fashion as described below); and
- (4) for other internal or administrative purposes consistent with our mission of providing our users with the highest quality experience, including contacting you about administrative issues pertaining to your account, or critical updates to the Three Girl Scientists website or the services you use or purchase. Three Girl Scientists does not share, sell, rent, or trade Personal Identifying Information with third parties for their promotional purposes.

If you are registered as a patient (or similar designation) with the Three Girl Scientists website, Three Girl Scientists will use your PHI, as coupled with Personal Identifying Information, only as you specifically direct or as otherwise may be permitted under HIPAA.

We may also use PHI, without disclosing it to others, to personalize and enhance your experience when visiting the Three Girl Scientists website and to promote to you (including contacting you by e-mail) Three Girl Scientists or Three Girl Scientists endorsed products or services, or other products or services in which we believe you may be interested based upon such PHI, but only when you opt-in to receive our promotions and newsletters, and you may later opt-out from promotional emails through various mechanisms we provide.

We will use your billing and usage Information, as applicable, to bill you for the services which you knowingly purchase and to provide you with technical and billing support.

Three Girl Scientists may use third party providers and subcontractors for the features and services offered on the Three Girl Scientists website and also for internal, administrative, and tracking purposes. Service through these providers may necessarily include providing them with some or all of your Personal Information, PHI, Billing Information (for credit card processing, collections, and related matters), and your Usage Information (for subcontracted services and features), but we will use diligent efforts to restrict use of this Information by these third parties to the purpose of providing the specific THREE GIRL SCIENTISTS feature, function, service or purpose for which the third party has been engaged, and, to the extent such parties are provided PHI, only to the extent they agree to abide by HIPAA obligations imposed on such parties based on their role and relationship to THREE GIRL SCIENTISTS.

In addition, Three Girl Scientists specifically reserves the right, to the maximum extent permitted by law, to use or disclose any Information:

- (a) for the purposes of enforcing our user agreements, use policies and the like or
- (b) when requested by law enforcement agencies (whether or not under subpoena), if we reasonably suspect a violation of our user agreements or use policies or any applicable law.

Security: How Information is Stored

Three Girl Scientists has appropriate technical and organizational security measures in place to reasonably protect against the loss, misuse and alteration of user data under our control. For example, we use appropriate encryption for payment card transactions, we use encrypted email for transmission of patient health information, we use GoToMeeting (HIPAA compliant virtual meeting room) for virtual counseling sessions. We train our staff to understand applicable HIPAA and PCI requirements so as to avoid any violations of applicable standards. We also use reasonable efforts to assure that any subcontractor, provider, or other party that has access to any PHI has agreed to comply with appropriate HIPAA requirements. While we cannot guarantee that loss, misuse or alteration of data will not occur, we make diligent efforts to prevent such unfortunate occurrences.

Billing Information may also be stored by our payment card processors and be subject only to our limited control.

Additionally, we strongly recommend that you keep all of your user information, such as account IDs, passwords, and other sensitive information secret and not disclose such information to anyone else. We cannot be responsible for any use of this information should you disclose it to anyone else, or for the use or distribution of any of your information or data stored with the Three Girl Scientists website if it is obtained via use of your account ID or password. Please note that Three Girl Scientists will never email you to phish for (attempt to convince you to disclose) your username or password.

Use of Cookies, Web Beacons, and Log Files

Three Girl Scientists uses a feature of your Web browser called a cookie — a file that your browser places on your computer's hard drive to uniquely identify your computer, to tell us whether you have previously visited the Three Girl Scientist website, to track your clicks through the website, and to help us determine whether you came to Three Girl Scientists from a particular Internet link or advertisement. Cookies can also be used to save and retrieve passwords and to save information on past usage of features and other preferences. Three Girl Scientists does not and cannot use cookies to retrieve Personal Information or PHI about you from your computer unless such information was knowingly and willingly provided by you.

Some of our business partners, subcontractors, sponsors, and advertisers use cookies through the Three Girl Scientists Website (for example, banner advertisers) to track the success of our or their advertising and marketing efforts, which is standard practice for many of the websites you may visit. If you wish to restrict how cookies are placed on your computer, please check your browser settings, or check your browser's help information for instructions on how to enhance the security of your browser or limit use of and access to cookies. Please note that your browser's security settings may disable some features or services on certain websites.

Similarly, Three Girl Scientists, its advertisers, subcontractors, and other partners may also use web beacons (small image files which are used to track presence on web pages and surfing patterns) in a similar fashion to cookies, except that web beacons do not store any personal information on your computer. We may also use web beacons or similar technology to track clicks from our newsletters and the like.

The Three Girl Scientist website may include widgets, which are interactive mini-programs that run on the Three Girl Scientists website to provide specific services from another company (such as displaying news, opinions, or other content). Personal identifying information, such as your email address, may be collected through a widget. Cookies may also be set by a widget to enable it to function properly. Information collected by a widget is governed by the privacy policy of the company that created it. We suggest you review all such information through the links provided by the widget. For more information, please contact us as provided below.

Finally, servers owned or controlled by Three Girl Scientists will log each website visitors' IP address, browser type, operating system, referring and exiting URLs, and other statistical and technical information. Except for the purposes of enforcing this Policy or any user agreements, and assisting law enforcement agencies, Three Girl Scientists will treat this as Anonymous Information

Posted Information and Content; Use of Listing and Community Features

Although it is probably obvious, to the extent you submit or post any statement, opinion, testimonial, review, or listing to the Three Girl Scientist website (or any material which by its nature appears to be intended to be published or posted) or participate in any forum, chat, opinion feature, message board, blog, or any other interactive or community service or feature on the Three Girl Scientists website, all of the information contained in your submission or communications will likely become public information on the Three Girl Scientist website and possibly published by our affiliates or partners, and Three Girl Scientists will not have any control over the use of such information by users and third parties with access to that information. Three Girl Scientists reserves the right to use all of such information at its discretion without restriction.

Accordingly, if there is any matter in any such material which you do not intend or wish to be publicly available, published, distributed and otherwise used in a public fashion, please do not include it or submit it. We cannot honor any special request from you in that regard. We strongly discourage the submission or posting of any PHI in any such public forum or feature unless you wish such information to be publicly available.

Additional privacy policies and other terms may apply to use of any community or interactive feature or service available through the Three Girl Scientists website or otherwise provided by Three Girl Scientist. Please check the pages containing those features and services for more information.

Newsletters

Patients, clinics, doctors, dispensaries, and other THREE GIRL SCIENTISTS Website users may receive one or several of our various newsletters. You may cancel your newsletter subscription at any time upon written notice to contact@threegirlscientists.com.

Other Events

Please note that all information and material collected or provided, in any manner and of whatever nature, may be transferred or assigned by Three Girl Scientists in conjunction with a merger or the sale of all or a portion of the Three Girl Scientists business (or similar event).

This Policy does not apply to business ideas, concepts or inventions that you send as suggestions or proposals to Three Girl Scientists. If you want to keep content or business information, ideas, concepts or inventions private or proprietary, do not send them to Three Girl Scientists without reaching an agreement with us as to its treatment, as we otherwise reserve the right to use them in our discretion. This Policy also does not apply to any information you submit to Three Girl Scientists by e-mail unless expressly so stated herein.

Links to Other Websites

The Three Girl Scientists website contains links to third party websites and advertisements leading to promotions of third party products and services outside of our control. Three Girl Scientists is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other websites or promotions. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our website and to read the privacy statements of each website that collects personally identifiable information. This Policy applies solely to information collected by the Three Girl Scientists website and other websites operated or controlled by Three Girl Scientists, and not any third party website.

Children

The Three Girl Scientist website and the functions and features we offer are not intended for use by children or minors, although parents or guardians of minors who need to seek counseling may use the Three Girl Scientists website on such minors' behalf. We ask that children and minors not use the THREE GIRL SCIENTISTS Website directly, whether or not supervised by parents or guardians.

Modifications; Cancellation; Refund Policy

Three Girl Scientists reserves the right to reasonably modify this Policy at any time. Minor changes will be posted on the Three Girl Scientists website, and you will be notified of material changes to this Policy by either:

- (a) e-mail (to the e-mail account you registered with) or;
- (b) a prominently posted notice, either here or on the Three Girl Scientist website home page, of pending material changes at least 30 calendar days prior to the effectiveness of such change.

All such modifications will be binding on all registrants and users, including retroactively with respect to information and materials provided prior to such modification, provided that if you do not agree to the retroactive application of any specific change, you may provide us written notice (to contact@threegirlscientists.com) and we will use reasonable efforts to delete all Personal Identifying Information, PHI, and Usage Information affected by such change, which may also require the termination of your account. If you are concerned, please check back periodically to review the current Three Girl Scientists Privacy Policy.

If you do not agree with any such changes, or if you no longer wish to be subject to this Policy, you may contact Three Girl Scientists (see terms of use also) to cancel your account, and upon complete payment of any amounts due and owing for any paid Three Girl Scientists service you have knowingly purchased (if applicable), Three Girl Scientists will use diligent efforts to delete your Personal Identifying and Billing Information.

All services and sales conducted between Three Girl Scientists and consumer are final.

Liability

Three Girl Scientists's liability from or arising out of this Policy or any breach thereof is subject to the general limits of liability stated in the Three Girl Scientists Terms of Use.

If you are located in a state (or other jurisdiction) where the Three Girl Scientists website is operated by an Affiliate, your relationship is solely with such Affiliate and not with Three Girl Scientists, and any claims you may have arising out of or relating to this Policy or the Three Girl Scientists website shall be made solely against such Affiliate, and not Three Girl Scientists.

Three Girl Scientists does not encourage, recommend or promote the changing of drug therapies without appropriate consultation from your prescribing healthcare provider.

All recommendations made by Three Girl Scientists are made by a licensed pharmacist with medical certification in cannabis and are not intended to be taken as change of therapy, but rather a starting point of discussion with patients' prescribing healthcare provider.

All recommendations are made with the focus of drug interactions and best therapy use and with the intent of the betterment for the human being. In the event of adverse events due to the recommendations made by a pharmacist of Three Girl Scientists, Three Girl Scientists are not to be held liable.
